IT SECURITY FIRMS FORM
STRATEGIC ALLIANCE TO ENTER
MIDDLE EAST

Advanced German Technology (AGT) and Finland-based Stonesoft announced on December 6 their strategic alliance to enter markets across the Middle East. In its alliance with Stonesoft, AGT will act as supplier to offer comprehensive state-of-the-art IT-security products, solutions and services tailor-made for a broad range of Middle Eastern users. The companies' partnership aims at significantly increasing the level of security for the region's banks, private companies, government agencies, public institutions and people.
