

Management

Anas Chbib, Managing Director

Born: 11 December 1971 in Damascus, Syria

After finishing high school in 1989 in Damascus, Mr Chbib started his studies of «Information Technology» at the University of Dortmund, Germany and continued in 1995 by studying «Commercial Information Technology» at the University of Cologne, Germany. In 1992, Mr Chbib started his studies of «Information Technology» at the University of Dortmund, Germany and continued in 1995 by studying «Commercial IT» at the University of Cologne, Germany.

Since 1999, Mr Chbib has collected work experience with companies like Deutsche Bank, Dresdner Bank, Lufthansa Consulting, Medisana AG and Deutsche Bahn. For the Institution for Trade in Industry and Government he established a network of business alliances throughout Europe and the Middle East.

It was still during his studies that Mr Chbib had the vision of linking advanced German technology to Middle East customers which he is now realising as a Managing Director of AGT.

